

ASSET	THREAT	TARGETS	MANAGEMENT ACTION TARGETS
Community	Inadequate strategic management, limited knowledge and financial resources, limited human capacity, population pressure, land use change/ conflict	AK. Develop a process to identify and establish Resource Condition Targets for community participation by 2004.	92. Encourage community involvement and ownership of natural resource management issues in the Region. Provide information and resources at a local level to help develop appropriate actions. 93. By 2005, establish effective consultation processes with indigenous Australians regarding natural resource management. 94. By 2004, engage with indigenous communities to consider the appointment of a cultural heritage person. 95. By 2004, develop and promote partnerships at an operational level with the Departments of Primary Industries and Sustainability & Environment. 96. Develop and promote partnerships with other key resource management organisations such as water authorities, local government, non-government and disaster prevention and response groups. 97. Using ongoing NRM work as a teaching tool, increase support for the environmental education of children. 98. Develop visitor education programs jointly with the tourism industry. 99. Improve access to information across levels of government to target specific groups, identifying why issues are important and what people can do. 100. Make regional knowledge more accessible by developing local nodes and points of personal contact that function as a network of individuals and agencies.

TABLE 36. TARGETS FOR THE REGIONAL ASPIRATION - COHESIVE, INNOVATIVE COMMUNITIES, THAT VALUE AND PROTECT NATURAL RESOURCES AND PARTICIPATE IN PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

TABLE 36. TARGETS FOR THE REGIONAL ASPIRATION - COHESIVE, INNOVATIVE COMMUNITIES, THAT VALUE AND PROTECT NATURAL RESOURCES AND PARTICIPATE IN PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

ASSET	THREAT	TARGETS	MANAGEMENT ACTION TARGETS
			101. Develop the Regional Catchment Strategy as a primary point of reference for information on condition, plans and current activity. 102. Research, design and test communication activity, and share learning between those responsible for natural resource management communication in the Region. 103. Establish and implement a partnership protocol with key coastal and marine agencies by 2004